Numb. 10334.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 26, to Saturday July 30, 1763.

St. James's, July 30.

THE following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heretors of the County of Forfar, having been tranſmitted by the Earl of Northeſk to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordſhip, been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heretors of the County of Forfar.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heretors, of the County of Forfar, attached, by every Tie of Duty and Affection, to your Majeſty's Perſon, beg Leave to acknowledge, with the warmeſt Gratitude, the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild auſpicious Government; and, at the ſame Time, moſt ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty, on the Succeſs of your truly paternal and humane Endeavours to reſtore Peace to your People, and to Europe in general, upon Terms no leſs honourable to the Crown, than advantageous to the Country.

It muſt raiſe in our Minds the higheſt Admiration of your Majeſty's Humanity, as well as of your Regard and Attention to the Welfare and Intereſt of your Kingdoms, that, amidſt the unparalleled Succeſs, which attended the Britiſh Arms during the late War, your Majeſty could ſacrifice the deluſive Proſpect of new Triumphs, to the real and ſolid Intereſt of your People, and put an End to the Calamities of Mankind, by a Treaty of Peace, everywhere marked with that Moderation and Equity, which afford the faireſt Proſpect of its Continuance.

With Hearts therefore animated, with a lively Senſe of our preſent happy Situation, and full of the warmeſt Zeal for your Sacred Perſon, we beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence of every Practice, that can tend to throw Diſreſpect on your Dignity.

May your Majeſty long reign over a free and united People; and as you have ſubdued your Enemies in the Field, may your Majeſty ever be enabled to cruſh that Spirit of Faction, which can only blaſt the Happineſs we enjoy, under the beſt of Sovereigns.

Signed in the Name, and by the Appointment, of the Meeting, the Twenty firſt Day of July 1763, by,

At Forfar. Northeſk, Præſes.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Houſe of Aſſembly, of the Province of Nova Scotia or Acadie, having been tranſmitted by Lieutenant Governor Belcher to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordſhip, been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Houſe of Aſſembly, of your Majeſty's Province of Nova Scotia or Acadie.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Aſſembly, of your Majeſty's Province of Nova Scotia, at our firſt Meeting in Legiſlature, ſince the Notification of the Birth of a Prince Royal and Heir Apparent to your Majeſty's Dominions, humbly offer our dutiful Congratulations on an Event ſo important and intereſting to the Liberties of Mankind.

May your Majeſty's People, by their conſtant Endeavours to merit the Divine Favour, ſecure the ineſtimable Bleſſing, of an uninterrupted Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe, to themſelves and their Poſterity, that from thence they may permanently enjoy all the Happineſs naturally flowing from the brighteſt Aſſemblage of Virtues.

Jonathan Belcher, Lieutenant Governor.

Province of Nova Scotia, Halifax, the 28th of April, 1763.

John Collier, Speaker for and on Behalf of the Council.

William Neſbitt, Speaker to the Houſe of Aſſembly.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Councils of the Diſtrict of Boroughs Anſtruther Eaſter, Pettinweem, Anſtruther Weſter, Craill and Kilrenny, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Councils of the Diſtrict of Boroughs Anſtruther Eaſter, Pettinweem, Anſtruther Weſter, Craill and Kilrenny.

Moſt Gratious Sovereign,

WE have received ſuch an Acceſſion of Happineſs by the Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace on Terms ſo Honourable and Advantageous to your Dominions, that we ſhould reckon ourſelves unworthy of the Bleſſing, if we did not, on that Occaſion, expreſs our Joy in grateful Thanks to your Majeſty, and bear a Part in the univerſal Satisfaction of all your Majeſty's faithful, dutiful, and loyal Subjects.

It affords the moſt agreeable Proſpect a Nation can have, to view its Sceptre in a Hand that hath guided it with ſo much Wiſdom; from thence, we now now repoſe ourſelves in full Confidence of enjoying the Bleſſings of Peace flowing from your Conduct, as the certain Conſequence of your prudent Adminiſtration.

That your Majeſty's Life may be long, and your Reign, as it has begun ſo, continue proſperous, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Councils of the Diſtrict of Boroughs Anſtruther Eaſter, Pittenweem, Anſtruther Weſter, Craill and Kilrenny.

Signed (by the Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town Councils of the above Diſtrict of Boroughs, and in their Names) by the Chief Magiſtrate of each Borough.

For Anſtruther Eaſter, Andrew Johnſton.
For Pittenweem, Tho. Martin.
For Anſtruther Weſter, Rob. Hunter.
For Craill, Andrew Jameſon.
For Kilrenny, Andrew Boyter.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Sutherland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Capt. Roſs, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Sutherland.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the Eſtabliſhment of a Safe and Honourable Peace, the happy Effect of the Wiſdom, Reſolution and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils in the Proſecution of a Glorious War, and of your paternal Care and Attention to the Proſperity and Welfare of your People.

With Hearts full of Joy, we ſee the Bleſſings that flow to theſe Kingdoms from that great Event; and it is with the utmoſt Deteſtation we can ever behold any audacious or inſolent Attempts of Faction tending to pervert the Minds and Affections of your faithful Subjects.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that from the ſame Spirit of true Liberty and inviolable Attachment to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, which has, on every Occaſion, actuated this County, no ſuch Arts will ever divert us from our Affection and Duty to your Sacred Perſon, and from a determined Reſolution to maintain and ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Power, the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, the Authority of Government, and the Principles of our happy Conſtitution.

May your Majeſty be long preſerved to ſecure and increaſe the Bleſſings of Peace to a free and happy People, united in Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty,

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment, by Dornoch, June 24, Sutherland, Præſes.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Gilbert Elliot, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Selkirk, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the many illuſtrious Events, which have, in ſo ſignal a Manner, adorned and diſtinguiſhed the firſt Years of your auſpicious Reign. Animated by the Sentiments of a Moderation truly magnanimous, you manifeſted, even in the Midſt of Victory, the earlieſt Diſpoſition to terminate, by a reaſonable Accommodation, the Calamities of the moſt extenſive and chargeable War, in which your Kingdoms had ever been involved. But when your gracious Intentions were rendered ineffectual, by the Obſtinacy of an Enemy elated by the Acceſſion of a new and powerful Ally, ſuch was the Wiſdom of your Councils, and ſuch the Vigour of your Arms, that by the well concerted and ſucceſsful Operations of one Campaign, you compelled your united Enemies to accept Terms of Peace more Honourable and Advantageous to your Crown and Kingdoms than thoſe which had been ſo lately rejected. An immenſe Acquiſition of Territory, the Improvement of every Naval and Commercial Advantage, the Security of your Allies, and the General Tranquility of Europe; theſe are the firſt happy Fruits of that great and important Event.

We beg Leave to renew, on this Occaſion, the moſt ſincere Profeſſions of our unalterable Attachment and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our determined Reſolution to promote a conſtant Obedience to the Laws of the Land, and due Reſpect to the Authority of Government, the only ſure Foundations of Conſtitutional Liberty, and the moſt certain Means to defeat every impious and ſeditious Attempt to diſturb the Peace and break the Concord of a free and united People.

Signed at Deſire, and in Preſence of the Meeting, at Selkirk, the Fifteenth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three Years.

Will. Scott, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Peebles, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Capt. John Roſs, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Peebles.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Peebles, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to rejoice with your Majeſty on the happy Succeſs of your Negociations, which have put an End to the Calamities of War, and reſtored the Bleſſings of Peace to theſe Kingdoms, upon Terms highly Honourable to yourſelf, and Advantageous to your People.

The Vigour and Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils during the War, the unexampled Glory and Succeſs with which every Meaſure was crowned, and above all, the important Advantages ſecured to a trading People by the Peace, will long be remembered by by your faithful and affectionate Subjects with Admiration and Gratitude.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that as we are deeply sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under you mild and just Administration; so we look with the utmost Abhorrence on every Attempt to disturb the Public Tranquility, or insult the Dignity of our Sovereign.

That your Majesty may be blest with every Public and Private Comfort; and that you may long reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People, are our sincere and ardent Wishes.

Signed at Peebles, the 12th Day of July, 1763. in our Presence and at our Appointment, by James Ballantyne, Provost.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Measles, Pleurisies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, Colds, and all inflammatory Disorders, as well as for those which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hysteric, Price 2 s. 6 d. the Paper; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

 Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Paper, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preserved for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by those who are empowered by him to sell it in the several Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Milk Powder for the Disorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the same Materials as the other Powder, but so contrived as to have little or no sensible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumstances, Infants, and those whose Constitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small Pox, Price 2 s. 6 d.

IF William Taylor, who formerly lived in King-street, Westminster, and, in the Year 1757, was at New Providence in South Carolina, be living, he may, by applying to Mr. John Malpas, at his Toy-shop, in Greek-street, St. Ann's, Soho, hear of something to his Advantage.
